

JUSTICE LAWS RATIONALISATION ACT 18 OF 1996

[ASSENTED TO 10 APRIL 1996] [DATE OF COMMENCEMENT: 1 APRIL 1997]
(Unless otherwise indicated)

(English text signed by the President)

as amended by

Judicial Matters Amendment Act 104 of 1996
Maintenance Act 99 of 1998
Attorneys and Matters relating to Rules of Court Amendment Act 115 of 1998

ACT

To provide for the rationalisation and consolidation of certain statutes by the extension of the operation of certain laws to certain areas forming part of the national territory of the Republic of South Africa in substitution for certain other laws applied in those areas; to repeal such other laws; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

1 Definitions

In this Act, unless the context otherwise indicates-

'affected territory' means a territory referred to in section 2 (1) (a) and (b) ;

'inherited law' means a law of the Republic of South Africa which continued in operation in any affected territory by virtue of constitutional provisions enacted when such affected territory attained independence or self-government and which consequently became the law of such affected territory; and

'Minister' means the Minister of Justice.

2 Extension of laws

(1) The operation of the laws specified in Schedule I, as amended by this Act, is hereby made applicable, to the extent indicated in the third column thereof, to every area which immediately before 27 April 1994 formed part of the territory of-

- (a) the Republic of-
 - (i) Transkei;
 - (ii) Bophuthatswana;
 - (iii) Venda; or
 - (iv) Ciskei; or
- (b) the Self-governing territory of-
 - (i) Gazankulu;
 - (ii) KaNgwane;
 - (iii) KwaNdebele;
 - (iv) KwaZulu;
 - (v) Lebowa; or

[Date of commencement of sub-para. (v) in so far as it applies to the extension of the Magistrates' Courts Act 32 of 1944: to be proclaimed.]

(vi) Qwaqwa.

(2) Any reference to a particular law specified in Schedule I shall be construed as a reference to such law as it applied immediately before the commencement of this Act, including any amendment effected in its application by a competent authority.

3 Repeal of laws

The laws specified in Schedule II are hereby repealed to the extent indicated in the third column thereof.

[Date of commencement in so far as it applies to the repeal of the whole of Decree 4 (Ombudsman) of 1988 in the area of Transkei: 1 August 2000; the repeal of the whole of the Ombudsman Act 9 of 1986 and the Ombudsman Amendment Act 39 of 1991: 1 April 1999, in the area of Bophuthatswana; the repeal of ss. 14, 15, 18, 18A and 107 of the Magistrates' Courts Act 32 of 1944 in the area of Lebowa and the repeal of the whole of the Qwaqwa Ombudsman Act 6 of 1987 in the area of Qwaqwa: 1 August 2000.]

4 Amendment of laws

The laws of the former Republic of South Africa specified in Schedule III are hereby amended to the extent indicated in the third column thereof.

5 Adaptation of references to the Supreme Court

Any reference to a provincial or local division of the Supreme Court of South Africa in any of the laws specified in Schedule I shall, in relation to an affected territory in which the Supreme Court Act, 1959 (Act 59 of 1959), does not apply, be deemed to be a reference to the Supreme Court or the General Division of the Supreme Court having jurisdiction in that territory.

6 Appeals to a full court

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 2, sections 315 and 316 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act 51 of 1977), shall have no force or effect in the affected territory of Venda until the laws of that territory relating to appeals have been repealed or appropriately amended.

(2) Section 20 of the Supreme Court Act, 1959, and the Rules regulating the conduct of the proceedings of the various Provincial and Local Divisions of the Supreme Court of South Africa (otherwise known as the Uniform Rules of Court), as amended from time to time, dealing with appeals to and from a full court shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the General Division of the Supreme Courts of the former Transkei, Bophuthatswana and Ciskei.

7 Existing districts and regional divisions

Any district or regional division created, named or defined and any court established in any affected territory under section 2 of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944 (Act 32 of 1944), or any other corresponding law, shall continue to exist and shall be deemed to have been created, named, defined or established by the Minister under section 2 of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944 (Act 32 of 1944).

8 Appeals from Traditional Courts

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, section 29A of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944, shall be of no force or effect in any affected territory where the said section did not previously apply, until the laws of the said territory relating to traditional courts have been repealed or appropriately amended.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, section 309A of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, shall be of no force or effect in any affected territory where the said section did not previously apply, until the laws of such territory relating to traditional courts have been repealed or appropriately amended.

9 Preservation of certain Offices of Attorney-General

Notwithstanding anything contained in section 3-

- (a) sections 3 and 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1983 (Act 13 of 1983), of the former Republic of Transkei; and
- (b) sections 3 and 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977, as applicable in the former Republics of Bophuthatswana, Venda and Ciskei, shall continue to apply in those territories until the application of the Attorney-General Act, 1992 (Act 92 of 1992), is extended to such territories.

10 Position of maintenance orders registered or confirmed under Act 6 of 1989

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders (Countries in Africa) Act, 1989 (Act 6 of 1989), or the coming into operation of the Constitution, any maintenance order registered in terms of section 4 of the Reciprocal Enforcement of Maintenance Orders (Countries in Africa) Act, 1989, or confirmed in terms of section 6 of that Act or under any corresponding law in force in any of the affected territories, shall continue to be in force, and shall be deemed to be a maintenance order made under section 16 (1) (a) (i) or (b) (i) of the Maintenance Act 1998, as the case may be, by the maintenance court where such order has been so registered or confirmed.

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 45 (1) of Act 99 of 1998.]

(2) Any maintenance order, or other order related thereto, made in any affected territory under any law repealed by this Act, shall continue to be in force, and shall be deemed to have been made under a corresponding provision of the Maintenance Act, 1998.

[Sub-s. (2) substituted by s. 45 (1) of Act 99 of 1998.]

(3) Subsection (1) shall be deemed to have come into operation on 27 April 1994.

11 Rules

(1) Subject to section 6 (2), nothing in this Act shall affect the continuing application, mutatis mutandis, of any rules of court made under any law until repealed or appropriately amended in terms of the Rules Board for Courts of Law Act, 1985 (Act 107 of 1985).

[Sub-s. (2) deleted by s. 6 (4) of Act 115 of 1998.]

12 Extension and repeal of regulations and notices

All regulations or other notices promulgated by the Minister under any of the laws specified in Schedule 1, shall apply in all affected territories where they did not previously apply, and shall apply throughout the national territory of the Republic, and all other regulations or other notices made by other functionaries under an Act repealed by this Act, and in operation in any affected territory shall, subject to section 11, be deemed to have been repealed.

13 Retention of jurisdiction in certain criminal matters

(1) If, in any criminal matter, it is alleged that an offence was committed partly within and partly outside the area of jurisdiction of a court before 27 April 1994 and the question arises-

- (a) whether the prosecuting authority within the area of jurisdiction of such court has the authority to institute and to conduct a prosecution in respect of such offence; or
- (b) whether such court has jurisdiction to dispose of a case where a prosecution in respect of such offence had been instituted prior to the commencement of this Act, the prosecuting authority or the court concerned shall, if it would prior to the commencement of this Act have had such authority, be deemed to have the authority to institute such a prosecution or to dispose of such a case, as the case may be: Provided that no such prosecution shall be instituted after the commencement of this Act without authority given in writing by the Attorney-General concerned after consultation with the prosecuting authority having jurisdiction in the other area where the offence was committed.

(2) The laws extended by section 2 relating to procedure and evidence shall apply in any criminal proceedings instituted and conducted in terms of subsection (1): Provided that where a prosecution referred to in subsection (1) has been instituted prior to the commencement of this Act, the case shall be disposed of in terms of the laws applicable to the court concerned immediately before the commencement of this Act.

14 Saving of pending proceedings

(1) Nothing in this Act shall affect proceedings pending at the commencement of this Act and such proceedings shall be continued and concluded in every respect as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) Proceedings shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be pending if, at the commencement of this Act-

- (a) a civil summons had been issued but judgment had not been passed; or
- (b) an accused had pleaded but judgment or sentence had not been passed.

15 Savings

(1) Nothing in this Act shall-

- (a) affect the previous operation of any law made applicable by section 2 or repealed by section 3 or anything duly done or suffered under any law so made applicable or repealed;
- (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any law so made applicable or repealed;
- (c) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any law so made applicable or repealed;
- (d) affect any question as to whether any law was at the commencement of this Act in operation in any specific territory notwithstanding its inclusion in or omission from Schedule I or II; and
- (e) affect any appointment to any office made under any law repealed by this Act, if a corresponding law referred to in Schedule I also provides for such an appointment, and anything done in connection with or by virtue of any such appointment shall be deemed to have been done under such corresponding law.

(2) When the operation of a law specified in Schedule I is made applicable to an affected territory by section 2 and a provision of such a law confers a power, jurisdiction or right, or imposes a duty or entrusts a function to the holder of an office, a body, an institution or any other authority appointed or established in terms of or under a law which has not been made applicable to such affected territory, such power, jurisdiction or right shall be exercised and such duty or function shall be performed by the holder of a corresponding office, or a corresponding body, institution or authority appointed or established for the purpose of exercising a corresponding power, jurisdiction or right, or performing a corresponding duty or function in terms of or under a law applicable to such affected territory.

[Sub-s. (2) added by s. 25 of Act 104 of 1996.]

(3) Any reference in a law specified in Schedule I to a duty, function, power, procedure, process, provision or any other act in terms of or under another law which, when the operation of the first-mentioned law is made applicable to an affected territory, has not been made applicable to such affected territory, shall be construed as a reference to a duty, function, power, procedure, process, provision or act in terms of or under a corresponding law applicable to such affected territory.

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 25 of Act 104 of 1996.]

16 Repeals section 20 of the General Law Amendment Act 98 of 1965.

17 Repeals section 4 of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Amendment Act 55 of 1970.

18 Short title and commencement

(1) This Act shall be called the Justice Laws Rationalisation Act, 1996, and shall come into operation on a date fixed by the President by proclamation in the Gazette .

(2) Different dates may be fixed in terms of subsection (1) in respect of-

- (a) different provisions of this Act;
- (b) different laws or provisions of laws specified in Schedule I or II; and
- (c) different areas referred to in section 2 (1).

(b) The Minister may, in a particular case or generally and subject to such directions as he or she may deem fit, delegate the power conferred upon him or her by paragraph (d) to the Director-General of his or her Department or another officer of that Department with the rank of director or an equivalent or higher rank.

(c) A judicial officer of a district, subdistrict or regional, civil or family division may at the same time also be such a judicial officer of another district, subdistrict or regional, civil or family division, respectively.

(d) The Minister may, with due regard to the circumstances and the extent of judicial functions in a particular district for which a magistrates' court and a civil court have been established, appoint a judicial officer as magistrate, additional magistrate or assistant magistrate and civil magistrate for that district, and in any such case any such person shall possess the powers and jurisdiction and perform the duties connected to both such offices: Provided that a magistrate, additional magistrate or assistant magistrate who presided at criminal proceedings from which a civil action arises in a civil court and in which the same parties are involved, shall not preside in that court in respect of that action unless the parties agree thereto.

(2) (a) Any person appointed as judicial officer under this section shall, before commencing with his or her functions in terms of this Act for the first time, take an oath or make an affirmation subscribed by him or her, in the form set out below:

'I,

(full name)

do hereby swear/solemnly and sincerely affirm and declare that whenever I may be called upon to perform the functions of a judicial officer in any court, I will administer justice to all persons alike without fear, favour or prejudice and, as the circumstances of any particular case may require, in accordance with the law and customs of the Republic of South Africa.'

(b) Any such oath or affirmation shall be taken or made in open court before the most senior available judicial officer of the court concerned or a justice of the peace, who shall at the foot thereof endorse a statement of the fact that it was taken or made before him or her and of the date on which it was so taken or made and append his or her signature thereto.

(3) Whenever by reason of absence or incapacity a judicial officer is unable to carry out the functions of his or her office or whenever such office becomes vacant, the Minister or an officer of the Department of Justice authorized thereto in writing by the Minister, may appoint any other competent officer of the public service or any competent retired officer of the public service to act in the place of the absent or incapacitated judicial officer during such absence or incapacity or to act in the vacant office until the vacancy is filled: Provided that no person shall be appointed as an acting regional, senior civil or family magistrate unless he or she has satisfied all the requirements for the degree referred to in section 10 (b) or has passed an examination referred to in that section.

(4) The Minister or an officer of the Department of Justice authorized thereto in writing by the Minister, may appoint temporarily any person to act, subject to such conditions or restriction as the Minister or such officer may determine, either generally or in a particular matter, as judicial officer of a district, subdistrict or regional, civil or family division, as the case may be, in addition to any other judicial officer or acting judicial officer of any such district, subdistrict or regional, civil or family division.

(5) The provisions of section 9 quat (2) and (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to any person appointed under subsection (3) or (4): Provided that the provisions of section 9 quat (4) shall not apply to any such person who is subject to the laws governing the public service.'

(b) Amendment of section 14 by the substitution for paragraph (b) of the following paragraph:

' (b) by the substitution in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) for the expressions "messenger" and "Consolidated Revenue Fund" of the expressions "sheriff" and "National Revenue Fund", respectively; and'.

(c) The following section is substituted for section 44:

'44 Substitution of section 71A of Act 32 of 1944 , as inserted by section 16 of Act 53 of 1970

The following section is hereby substituted for section 71A of the principal Act:

'71A Movable property which sheriff cannot dispose of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by public auction

(1) Any movable property in the custody

		of the sheriff or any other person acting on his or her behalf in respect of which attachment has been withdrawn or which is released from attachment and in respect of which the owner or person from whose possession the property has been removed, cannot be traced, and which cannot be disposed of in terms of this Act, shall be sold by the sheriff by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale shall, after deduction of the sheriff's costs, be paid into the National Revenue Fund: Provided that such sale shall not take place unless such property has remained unclaimed for a period of fourteen days after the sheriff has published, in one English and one Afrikaans newspaper circulating in the district where the last known address of the judgment debtor is situate, a notice containing the name of the judgment debtor and a description of the property and stating the intention to sell such property if it is not claimed within the period specified therein. (2) After the public auction referred to in subsection (1), the sheriff shall draw up a venue roll as if the sale was a sale in execution of property and shall attach the roll to his or her return in respect of the relevant process of the court in the case together with proof that the proceeds of the sale have been paid into the National Revenue Fund. (3) The proceeds of a sale paid into the National Revenue Fund in terms of this section, shall be refunded out of accruing revenue to any person who satisfies a civil magistrate of the district in which the sale took place that he or she would have been entitled to receive the property referred to in this section after the attachment thereof had been withdrawn or the property had been released from attachment.'.
